

SECOND TIME

"Second Time" took shape in the collection of memories of experiences gained at A_G gallery; the time and space misplacement of objects in her mind which are sometimes close and at other times far from reality. Pieces which in their most real state, continue their existence in

